

LOYOLA COLLEGE'S FIRST ANNUAL

CHEERLEADING CLINIC

SATURDAY, DEC. 7, 12:00

We cordially invite all cheerleading teams and their instructors and/or advisors in the Montreal area to attend Loyola's First Annual Cheerleading Clinic on Saturday, December 7, 1968 commencing at 12:00 noon in Loyola College's Physical Education and Athletic Complex, 2800 Sherbrooke Street West.

Personal instruction and demonstrations will be given by Margo Jones, a former Big Ten Cheerleader at Ohio State University and National Clinic Instructor and the Loyola Warrior Cheerleaders.

One of the purposes of this clinic will be to emphasize the important role cheerleading plays in building school spirit.

A program of the days events follows.

Looking forward to meeting with you on December 7th.

R.S.V.P. Ann Blandford
482-0320 Local 451

12:00 p.m.	- Registration
12:30 p.m.	Introduction by Margo Jones with demonstration by Loyola Warrior Cheerleaders. Each team will be asked to perform one cheer.
1:00 p.m.	Talk and Demonstration - Subject: "What is a Cheerleader".
1:30 p.m.	Break into groups - Instruction in cheerleading techniques.
3:00 p.m.	Closing remarks - "How to best organize a cheerleading team".